

Fillings

It is normal to experience some sensitivity to chewing/pressure and hot and cold temperatures after fillings. The length of sensitivity varies per person. It may subside in as little as a few days or could last an undetermined length of time.